- (c) Candidates who have graduated from Colleges other than the Goa Dental College and Hospital but who have completed the Internship in the Goa Dental College and Hospital.

(3) Order of Merit:—

The order of merit shall be determined by computing the marks in the following manner:—

- (i) The merit shall be arrived at by obtaining the sum of the percentage of aggregate marks and the percentage of marks in the subject related to the degree in which the candidate seeks registration.
- (ii) Aggregate marks:— The percentage of aggregate marks shall be arrived at by totalling the marks obtained in all the subjects of 1st, 2nd, 3rd and final B. D. S. Sem-I and Sem-II University Examination and reducing it to a percentage after the following deductions:—
  - (a)  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per cent of the marks shall be deducted for every failure from the marks of the subject failed, except in the case of the subject related to the degree of registration,
  - (b)  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per cent of the marks shall also be deducted as above if the student takes a drop in any subject (does not appear/is absent at the Examination), at the scheduled time.
  - (iii) A candidate with more than 2 total failure at the B. D. S. level from General Category and more than 3 total failures for the reserve category i. e. OBC & SC/ST shall not be eligible. Any drop will be considered as an attempt/failure.
  - (iv) Total failure means the failure in more than one subject of a University Examination or dropping out from the Examination on any ground.
  - (v) For selection, the minimum aggregate marks is the grand total of 1st to final B. D. S. and the subject of speciality should be as follows, after deduction of failure, if any, for making a candidate eligible to apply for the M. D. S. course.

In General Category— Grand total of 1st to final year B. D. S.— 55% & subject of speciality 60%.

In OBC— Grand total of 1st to final B. D. S. — 50% & subject of speciality —55%

SC, ST— Grand total of 1st to final year B. D. S. — 50% & subject of speciality—50%
  - (vi) A weightage of 1% of marks per year shall be given to a senior student who has passed from this Institution prior to starting of the M. D. S. course subject to a maximum of 5% marks in the grand total as well as in the subject of speciality.

- (vii) Subject marks:— This refers to the percentage of marks in the subject related to the degree in which the candidate seeks registration. The percentage of subject marks shall be arrived at after deducting 5% of the marks for each failure or drop in the subject applied for.

Note:— While computing the aggregate marks, however, deductions indicated in 3 (ii) (a) and (b) above, shall not be made in the subject, where 5% deduction has already been made for failure under subject marks at 3 (vii) above.

- (viii) If two or more candidates secure the same marks in the merit list as drawn above, the subject marks shall decide the merit. In case the subject marks are also the same, the total marks secured by the candidate in the final B. D. S. examination or total marks of III B. D. S. examination or total marks of II B. D. S. examination or total marks of 1st B. D. S. examination depending on the post graduate subject for which the candidates wants to register.
